What does group styling in Rotterdam cost?

A group styling price in Rotterdam depends on what each person books. A bride who wants a hijab and makeup and two guests who want just their hair will need three slots. Ask for both the total and the breakdown for that group. Sinem charges no travel fee for coming to the shared address.

Ask about your group specifically

Request the total and a price per person, and ask whether a group rate is available. That makes it easier to share the costs even if everyone chooses different services.

If the group changes

If a guest drops out or someone adds makeup, share the change before splitting the cost. Ask for the total for the updated group.
