No travel fee for bridal styling at home in Rotterdam

Sinem charges no travel fee for coming to your Rotterdam address, including when you're booking bridal hair, hijab styling or makeup just for yourself.

Give the getting-ready address

Share where you'll be dressing and when you'll leave for the ceremony. Then ask for the price of the styling you've chosen.

When the getting-ready address differs from the venue

If the wedding is in the centre but you are dressing at a relative's home elsewhere in Rotterdam, give that home address as the appointment location. The venue name alone does not identify where to meet you.
