Do I need a group booking to avoid travel fees in Almere?

Sinem charges no travel fee for an individual styling appointment in Almere. For a group, list the services each person wants so she can suggest a schedule and quote for everyone.

When a guest hasn’t decided yet

If you want to book while your sister is still deciding, say that the enquiry is for one person and ask when you would need to add her. There is no travel fee for your own appointment either way.
