Should my bridal hairstyle depend on my partner's height?

Choose a height that you enjoy and feel comfortable wearing. A high bun and a veil set at the crown give a taller silhouette. If you prefer less height in pictures, try a bun at the nape and a lower veil fastening.

Try your usual greeting

Stand beside your partner and lean in as you would for a greeting. If a pin brushes their cheek or your veil catches on a jacket, try moving just that detail before deciding to change the whole style.
